

— DUBLIN CITY GALLERY
THE HUGH LANE —

SUMMER

2017

CAMPS

JULY -

AUGUST

JULY

WEEK 1

Tuesday 04th - Friday 07th
10.30-12pm
6-10 year old;
Fee: €40

From the Impressionists to Anne Madden's paintings, invent your own collages, experiment with 3D modelling, create large-scale colourful landscapes and cool costumes with artists Frances Coghlan and Barbara O'Connell.

WEEK 2

Tuesday 11th - Friday 14th
10.30-12pm
10-14 year old;
Fee: €40

Compile your own story inspired by the Gallery's collection during a creative writing & art workshop with Irish author Anna Carey. Keep your creative mind for sculptural experiments with artist Jane Fogarty.

WEEK 3

Tuesday 18th - Friday 21th
10.30-12.30pm
14-17 year old;
Fee: €40

Transparencies, light, shadows, projectors, green screen: how to create moving images using different technology and material that surround us? Experiment with animated processes and create short narrative stories during these workshops.

AUGUST

Join us to create your own artworks!

Every Thursday during August different themes will be explored together through workshops inspired by the collection and temporary exhibitions at the Gallery.

Fee: €5

Thursday 3rd
3-6 year old;

11.00 am- 12pm with artist Frances Coghlan

Thursday 10th
3-6 year old;

11.00 am- 12pm with artist Sinead Furlong-Clancy

Thursday 17th
6-10 year old;

11.00 am- 12pm with artist Ashleigh Downey

Thursday 24th
6-10 year old;

11.00 am- 12pm with artist Frances Coghlan

Thursday 31st
6-10 year old;

11.00 am- 12pm with artist Emma O'Toole

Dublin City Gallery The Hugh Lane, Charlemont House, Parnell Square North, Dublin 1, Ireland

Limited places - Early booking recommended - To book your place please call the Gallery's reception on 01 222 5550.

www.hughlane.ie