

Patrick Graham: Transfiguration Public Programme

Patrick Graham: Transfiguration (17 March – 10 July 2022)

Public Lecture

Wednesday 16 March, 4pm

Talk ‘Mimetic Rituals, Centrifugal Forces: On Patrick Graham’s Painterly Work’ with *Jörg Heiser

On the afternoon of the opening of the exhibition, we are delighted to have with us writer, professor of art theory, editor, musician and curator Jörg Heiser who will give an illustrated talk in the gallery. Free, please book here or come on the day subject to availability. An essay by Jörg will be featured in our publication to coincide with the exhibition and will be available in May.

Art Course: Body as Landscape

Saturday 9 April, 10am-4pm and Sunday 10 April, 11am-4pm

Body as Landscape is a deep dive into artwork on view in our exhibition Patrick Graham: Transfiguration. Working with ecological artist Ashleigh Downey participants during this two-day art course will explore the theme of landscape through talks on artworks and figurative painting as well as practical art activities including sketching, collage, mark making and painterly processes. Drawing on participants' own experience of the land to create auto-biographical abstract portraits, artist Ashleigh Downey will also introduce participants to the art of mindful meandering. No prior experience is necessary and materials are provided. Fee: €50 for the two-day course. For booking see here

Tuesday 19 April, Noon

Online: Audio Description Tour of Patrick Graham: Transfiguration with Fala Buggy. Free and to book a place please click here

Public Lecture

Friday 13 May, 1pm

Talk ‘At the edge of the real, neither here nor there: The art and imagination of Patrick Graham’, with Kelly Grovier; followed by Q+A with artist Patrick Graham

Join us for this lunch-time talk at the gallery with poet, historian, and art critic Kelly Grovier. Free, book here, or come on the day subject to availability. An essay by Kelly Grovier will be featured in our publication to coincide with the exhibition and will be available in May.

Coffee Conversation

Wednesday 18 May 11am

Patrick Graham: Transfiguration will be explored with Michael Dempsey, Head of Exhibitions €5 fee to include tea/coffee, no advance booking required but numbers are limited.

Hugh Lane Culture Club

Friday 20 May, 10.30am

Exhibition in Focus: Patrick Graham: Transfiguration with Sarah Dunne O’Connell.

Free, although advanced booking required, email:

cultureclub@dublincitycouncilculturecompany.ie

Coffee Conversation

Wednesday 25 May, 11am

Ire/land III* by Patrick Graham with Aoife Convery.

€5 fee to include tea/coffee, no advance booking required but numbers are limited.

Coffee Conversation:

Wednesday 8 June, 11am

Talk on Patrick Graham: Transfiguration with Exhibition Curator Victoria Evans.

€5 fee to include tea/coffee, no advance booking required but numbers are limited.

Art Course: Figure Painting - Exploring the Figure in new contexts while looking at Patrick Graham: Transfiguration

Saturday 2 July from 10am-4pm and Sunday 3 July 11am-4pm,

A two day workshop with artist Beth O'Halloran where participants will be painting from the figure using techniques informed by Patrick Graham's stylistic choices - paintings as collections of marks, collage, drawn and painted lines. We will explore the three elements of paint- colour, surface and mark-making while looking at and responding to Graham's intuitive work. Fee: €50 and materials are provided. For booking see here

Coffee Conversation

Wednesday 6 July, 11am

At Lacken by Patrick Graham with Tony Suttle

€5 fee to include tea/coffee, no advance booking required but numbers are limited.

Study Morning

Friday 8 July 2022, 10am - 12.30pm

Join us for this Study Morning talks event when themes arising from the Patrick Graham: Transfiguration exhibition will be explored with contributors including writer, broadcaster and art critic Cristín Leach; filmmaker, activist Grace Dyas and further speakers. To book a place please see here

Sunday Public Tours exploring our collection and temporary exhibitions take place at 2.15pm. Free, no booking required although numbers may be limited.

For further information on the Patrick Graham: Transfiguration programmes please see www.hughlane.ie/education or contact Jessica O'Donnell, Head of Education and Community Outreach jodonnell.hughlane@dublincity.ie, Cleo Fagan, Education Curator, cleo.fagan@dublincity.ie or Catherine Neville, Assistant Education Curator, catherine.neville@dublincity.ie

Please see www.hughlane.ie for further information and details of current and upcoming programmes.

HUGH LANE GALLERY

Comhairle Cathrach
Bhaile Átha Cliath
Dublin City Council